

Aquila Capital appoints Manfred Schraepler as Managing Director

- Schraepler to head financial asset and liquid private market business

London, March 2016. Aquila Capital today announced the appointment of industry expert Manfred Schraepler as Managing Director and Business Unit Head Financial Assets and Liquid Private Markets. In the newly created role, Mr. Schraepler will be responsible for the strategic direction and further growth of Aquila Capital's financial asset business.

Manfred Schraepler joins Aquila Capital from Bank of America Merrill Lynch's Fund Solutions Group, having previously worked in a senior capacity at a number of firms, including as Director of Marketing at IKOS CIF Limited and Head of Structured Funds at Deutsche Bank AG, London.

Roman Rosslenbroich, CEO and Co-Founder of Aquila Capital, said: "I am delighted to welcome Manfred to Aquila Capital. He is a highly respected industry expert with a wealth of experience and strong track record in alternative investment management. I am confident that Manfred's proven expertise both in the development and expansion of fund management businesses and in the distribution of alternative investment strategies will play an instrumental role in Aquila Capital's long-term growth strategy."
