

Aquila Capital opens office in Prague to strengthen ties with investors and meet growing demand for alternatives

London, 12 July 2016 – Aquila Capital today announces it has opened an office in Prague to strengthen its relationship with investors and business partners in the Czech Republic and neighbouring countries as well as to meet growing demand for alternative investments in the region.

Roman Rosslenbroich, CEO and Co-Founder of Aquila Capital, said: “In the past few years we have built a close relation with our partners in the Czech Republic. Opening the office is therefore a logical step that enables us to have a direct exchange with our business partners at any time.”

The new office’s representative is Mr. Rostislav Chabr, Director, who has several years’ experience with Aquila Capital. He is fluent in Czech, English and German.

Mr. Chabr said: “Demand for alternative investments in the financial and real assets space in Europe has seen a significant growth in recent years and I look forward to having regular and personal contact with our investors.”

The new office’s location is Palladium, Namesti Republiky 1, 11000 Praha 1.
