

Aquila Capital adds industry expert Olaf Huth to Advisory Board

London, July 2016 – Aquila Capital is expanding its Advisory Board with the proven industry expert Olaf Huth.

Mr. Huth has over 30 years of asset management experience with a focus on investment solutions for wealthy private customers, family offices and institutional investors. He started his professional career at HSBC Trinkaus in 1985, where he held a number of senior positions in Germany and Switzerland. He was named a personally liable shareholder in 2001 and has been a member of the board of directors since 2013.

Roman Rosslenbroich, CEO and Co-Founder of Aquila Capital, said: “We are delighted that we were able to attract such a highly experienced industry professional to Aquila Capital’s Advisory Board and are confident that Mr. Huth will make a significant contribution to the ongoing growth and development of the company.”

Olaf Huth, added: “Alternative investments have been an area of increasing importance for Aquila Capital since its establishment in 2001. Mr. Rentsch and Mr. Rosslenbroich have built a leading alternative asset manager and I look forward to advising the company as it continues to deliver on its successful growth strategy.”

Aquila Capital’s advisory board consists of experienced and reputable members. As an independent unit, the advisory board provides advice on the company’s strategic orientation while helping to identify and evaluate new business areas.
